In a year where we debate Brexit and our Government commits to reexamine our relationship with the European Convention on Human Rights, the impact of both the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union and the ECHR on UK human rights law has been centre stage. We review key human rights cases from both Luxembourg and Strasbourg this year, focusing on how Europe can help your client.

Chair: Lt Col Revd Nicholas Mercer

Richard Hermer QC, Matrix Chambers Jocelyn Cockburn, Hodge Jones & Allen John Swords, MOD Central Legal Services

The application of domestic human rights law to the activities of UK forces acting overseas has been at the heart of the political debate on the application of the Human Rights Act 1998 and the European Convention on Human Rights. We consider recent legal developments, the extraterritorial impact of the ECHR, the implications for the armed forces, for individual claimants and for transparency and accountability.
